

INITIATIVE

INDONESIA

SHAPING TOMORROW: ADVANCING AI, EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES, AND HEALTHCARE
Business Mission – April 28-30, 2026

DAY #1 – MANDARIN ORIENTAL HOTEL

| JAKARTA TIME (GMT+7) | AGENDA |
|---------------------------------------|---|
| DAY 1: Tuesday, April 28, 2026 | |
| 08:00–09:00 (60") | Executive Breakfast This exclusive breakfast session brings together senior leaders to engage with Ambassador Peter Haymond, Chargé d’Affaires at the US Embassy, for a strategic discussion on the current status of Agreement on Reciprocal Tariffs (ART), AI and Emerging Technologies, as well as US healthcare programs. Participants will gain high-level insights into policy priorities, regulatory developments, and opportunities for US–Indonesia collaboration to advance trade, innovation, and sectoral growth. BY INVITATION ONLY - LIMITED SLOTS AVAILABLE <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Ambassador Peter Haymond – Chargé d’Affaires, US Embassy (CONFIRMED) |
| 09:00–09:30 (30") | Public Registration & Networking |
| 09:30–09:40 (10") | Welcoming Remarks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Donna Priadi – Managing Director, AmCham Indonesia ● John Goyer – Vice President, Southeast Asia, US Chamber of Commerce |
| 09:40–09:50 (10") | Opening Remarks Ambassador Peter Haymond – Chargé d’Affaires, US Embassy (CONFIRMED) |
| 09:50–10:00 (10") | Keynote Session H.E. Arif Havas Oegroseno – Vice Minister, Ministry of Foreign Affairs (CONFIRMED) |
| 10:00–11:00 (60") | PANEL I – US Government Perspective This panel will provide perspectives from the U.S. Embassy on the evolving U.S.–Indonesia economic relationship following recent trade discussions and the Agreement on Reciprocal Trade (ART). Speakers will discuss implications for trade facilitation, sectoral impacts across ICT and healthcare, and considerations for multinational companies operating in Indonesia. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Jonathan Habjan – Economic Counselor, US Embassy ● David Muehlke – Political Affairs Counselor, US Embassy (CONFIRMED) |

INITIATIVE

INDONESIA

SHAPING TOMORROW: ADVANCING AI, EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES, AND HEALTHCARE
Business Mission – April 28-30, 2026

| | |
|------------------------------|--|
| 11:00–11:10 (10") | Featured Speaker Edi Prio Pambudi - Deputy for Coordination of Economic Cooperation and Investment, Coordinating Ministry for Economic Affairs (CONFIRMED) |
| 11:10–11:15 (5") | Coffee Break |
| 11:15–12:45 (90") | PANEL II – Advancing Healthcare Transformation: The Role of Technology, AI, and Evidence-Based Decision Making Indonesia’s health system transformation is creating new opportunities for technology to improve service delivery, efficiency, and patient outcomes. This panel will explore the role of healthcare technologies in advancing these goals, including AI and digital tools in care delivery. Speakers will share perspectives on adoption challenges, provider experiences, and the role of Health Technology Assessment (HTA) in supporting evidence-based policy and sustainable healthcare financing. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Prof. Asnawi Abdullah, Ph.D – Head, Health Development Policy Agency (BKPK), Ministry of Health (CONFIRMED) ● dr. Supriyanto Dharmoredjo – President Director, RSUPN Dr. Cipto Mangunkusumo ● Kriswanto Trimoeljo – President Director, GE Healthcare Indonesia (CONFIRMED) |
| 12:45–13:45 (60") | Executive Insights Lunch – From Negotiation to Implementation: What the New Trade Landscape Means for Business The recently concluded US-Indonesia trade deal marks an important step in the evolving bilateral economic relationship. As attention shifts from negotiation to implementation, businesses are closely watching how the agreement may translate into regulatory reforms and market opportunities. This executive lunch will explore the deal’s implications for foreign investors and what companies should anticipate in Indonesia’s near-term policy and regulatory landscape. Douglas E. Ramage – Managing Director, BowerGroupAsia Indonesia (CONFIRMED) |
| 13:45–15:15 (90") | Panel III – Strengthening the Foundations for Indonesia’s AI and Digital Infrastructure Ecosystem As AI adoption accelerates globally, building strong digital infrastructure and governance foundations is critical to supporting a trusted and innovative AI ecosystem. This panel will explore Indonesia’s efforts to strengthen these foundations and advance responsible AI adoption. Speakers will discuss government priorities, regional and global best practices in AI governance, and private sector perspectives on deploying AI technologies, including key use cases and implementation challenges. |

INITIATIVE

INDONESIA

SHAPING TOMORROW: ADVANCING AI, EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES, AND HEALTHCARE
Business Mission – April 28-30, 2026

| | |
|----------------------|--|
| | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Wayan Toni Supriyanto – Director General of Digital Infrastructure, Ministry of Communications and Digital Affairs ● Jared Ragland – Vice President, Policy – APAC, Business Software Alliance (CONFIRMED) ● Stephen Braim – Vice President Government Affairs, IBM Asia Pacific (CONFIRMED) |
| 15:15–15:30 (15") | Coffee Break |
| 15:30–17:00 (90") | Panel IV – Global Perspectives on Digital and Health Policy The international policy landscape is rapidly evolving alongside the fast pace of development in digital innovation, artificial intelligence, and healthcare solutions. Bringing together perspectives from multilateral institutions, regional organizations, and industry, the panel will examine how global standards, ASEAN digital economy initiatives, and private-sector innovation are influencing regulatory approaches and sectoral policy development while also fostering innovation, investment, and responsible technology adoption. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Massimo Geloso Grosso – Head, OECD Jakarta Office (CONFIRMED) ● H.E. Satvinder Singh – Deputy Secretary-General of ASEAN for ASEAN Economic Community, ASEAN Secretariat ● Abel Torres – Executive Director, Center for Global Regulatory Cooperation, U.S. Chamber of Commerce (CONFIRMED) |
| 17:00–17:10 (10") | Wrap-Up & Closing Day #1 |
| 18:30–19:30 (60") | Salon Dinner An intimate salon-style dinner convening cross-sector leaders to examine the intersection of ICT and healthcare in light of the evolving Agreement on Reciprocal Tariff (ART), advancing strategic dialogue on digital health innovation, trade dynamics, and opportunities for collaboration. BY INVITATION ONLY - LIMITED SLOTS AVAILABLE |

INITIATIVE

INDONESIA

SHAPING TOMORROW: ADVANCING AI, EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES, AND HEALTHCARE
Business Mission – April 28-30, 2026

DAY #2 – OFFICE VISITS

Please note that participants are responsible for making their own lunch arrangements

| JAKARTA TIME (GMT+7) | AGENDA | NOTES |
|---|--|---|
| DAY 2: Wednesday, April 29, 2026 | | |
| 09:30–10:00 (30") | Meet at Ministry of Communications and Digital Affairs Office | |
| 10:00–11:00 (60") | Ministry of Communications and Digital Affairs Indonesia is currently advancing its digital transformation agenda, with the Ministry of Communications and Digital Affairs shaping key policies on digital infrastructure, data governance, and emerging technologies. This session will highlight the ministry’s strategic priorities, including developments in artificial intelligence governance and personal data protection, while exploring opportunities for public–private collaboration to support Indonesia’s growing digital economy. H.E. Nezar Patria – Vice Minister of Communications and Digital Affairs (CONFIRMED) | Jl. Medan Merdeka Barat No. 9, Jakarta 10110 |
| 12:30–13:00 (30") | Meet at Financial Services Authority (OJK) Office | |
| 13:00–14:00 (60") | Financial Services Authority (OJK) As Indonesia’s financial sector undergoes rapid transformation, OJK plays a central role in safeguarding stability while enabling innovation and sustainable growth. Through evolving regulatory frameworks and forward-looking supervision, OJK is shaping a financial ecosystem that supports digital innovation, expands financial inclusion, and strengthens resilience amid global economic shifts. This session will provide insights into the authority’s broader vision for Indonesia’s financial sector and its priorities in navigating the opportunities and risks of an increasingly digital financial landscape. Friderica Widayarsi Dewi – Chair of the Board of Commissioners, Financial Services Authority (OJK) | Jl. Lapangan Banteng Timur No. 2-4, Jakarta 10710 |
| 14:00–15:00 (60") | Departure to Food and Drug Supervisory Agency (BPOM) Office | Transportation Available |

INITIATIVE

INDONESIA

SHAPING TOMORROW: ADVANCING AI, EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES, AND HEALTHCARE
Business Mission – April 28-30, 2026

| | | |
|----------------------|---|---|
| 15:00–16:00 (60”) | Food and Drug Supervisory Agency (BPOM) As Indonesia’s primary regulator for pharmaceuticals and medical devices, the Food and Drug Supervisory Agency (BPOM) plays a central role in safeguarding product safety while ensuring public access to quality healthcare products. This session will highlight BPOM’s policy priorities, recent regulatory developments, and ongoing efforts to balance safety standards with innovation and market access. Taruna Ikrar – Head, Food and Drug Supervisory Agency (BPOM) | Jl. Percetakan Negara No.23, Jakarta 10560 |
| 16:00–End | Departure to Pick-Up Point | |

INITIATIVE

INDONESIA

SHAPING TOMORROW: ADVANCING AI, EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES, AND HEALTHCARE
Business Mission – April 28-30, 2026

DAY #3 – OFFICE VISITS

Please note that participants are responsible for making their own lunch arrangements

| JAKARTA TIME (GMT+7) | AGENDA | NOTES |
|--|---|---|
| DAY 3: Thursday, April 30, 2026 | | |
| 09:30–10:00 (30") | Meet at Danantara Investment Management Agency Office | |
| 10:00–11:00 (60") | Danantara Investment Management Agency As Indonesia advances its long-term economic transformation agenda, Danantara Indonesia plays a strategic role in mobilizing capital and directing investments toward priority sectors such as digital infrastructure and emerging technologies. Through coordinated investment strategies and partnerships with government ministries, global investors, and technology leaders, Danantara seeks to accelerate innovation, strengthen national capabilities, and support sustainable economic growth. This session will explore Danantara’s strategic investment priorities and its role in advancing Indonesia’s broader development vision. H.E. Rosan Roeslani – Chief Executive Officer, Danantara | Jl. Jenderal Gatot Subroto Kavling 36-38, Jakarta 12190 |
| 12:30–13:00 (30") | Meet at Ministry of Health Office | |
| 13:00–14:00 (60") | Ministry of Health Indonesia is undertaking an ambitious transformation of its healthcare system aimed at strengthening service delivery, expanding access to quality care, and improving long-term health resilience. Recent reforms seek to modernize healthcare infrastructure, enhance system efficiency, and create a more enabling environment for innovation and investment. This session will provide insights into the government’s vision for the next phase of healthcare development and opportunities for deeper public–private collaboration. H.E. Budi Gunadi Sadikin – Minister of Health | Jl. H. R. Rasuna Said Kav 4-9 Blok X-5, Jakarta 12950 |
| 14:00–15:30 (90") | Departure to Halal Product Assurance Organizing Agency (BPJPH) Office | Transportation Available |

INITIATIVE

INDONESIA

SHAPING TOMORROW: ADVANCING AI, EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES, AND HEALTHCARE
Business Mission – April 28-30, 2026

| | | |
|----------------------|--|--|
| 15:30–16:30 (60") | Halal Product Assurance Organizing Agency (BPJPH) Halal assurance has become an increasingly important component of Indonesia’s regulatory landscape, particularly as the country advances the implementation of its mandatory halal certification regime. The Halal Product Assurance Organizing Agency (BPJPH) plays a central role in overseeing certification processes, coordinating with regulators and industry, and ensuring regulatory clarity across sectors. This session will provide insights into the evolving halal regulatory framework and its implications for healthcare products, consumer goods, and businesses operating in Indonesia. Haikal Hassan – Head, Halal Product Assurance Organizing Agency (BPJPH) (CONFIRMED) | Jl. Raya Pd. Gede No. 13, Jakarta 13560 |
| 16:30–End | Departure to Pick-Up Point | |